GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Buckwa's record breaking performance in the Athenian Club Cup Stakes Saturday was a fine example of high speed sustained over a long distance of ground, but its chief value is in showing how easily the horses of today can wipe out all the long distance records made in the days when sprinting was in the main confined to the two-year-olds. This is not because the horses of today are better, it would be absurd to compare old Buckwa with a Springbok or a Hindoo, but it is because of the marvelous advance in the science of track making and the ceaseless care exercised by the track masters of today in keeping their tracks in condition that enables a horse to travel over their elastic velvety surfaces at the very highest rate their muscular endowment can propel them. It must be remembered that not only Buckwa eclipsed the long standing Springbok-Preakness record, but that each of his three competitors probably did the same thing, certainly Daisy F. and Veloz did.

Engene Leigh will at once send to the track at Louisville twenty-five head of two-year-olds from La Belle Farm, where they have wintered and been broken. They are all colts but one. The following is a partial list:

- Colt, by Bramble—Lady Wayward.
- Colt, by Bramble—North Anna.
- Colt, by Bramble—Caledonia.
- Colt, by Bramble—Queen Beluga.
- Colt, by Bramble—Perhaps.
- Colt, by Bramble—Red Dress.
- Colt, by Bramble—Virgie Wright.
- Colt, by Kingston—Arrow Grass.
- Colt, by Kingston—Libbie L.
- Colt, by Kingston—Servia.
- Colt, by Kingston—Ella Reed.
- Colt, by Kingston—Bayadere.
- Colt, by Kingston—Mint Drop.
- Filly, by Hindoo—Meridian.
- Colt, by Hindoo—Brenda.
- Colt, by Candelmas—Julia Kennedy.
- Colt, by Strathmore.
- Colt, by Burlington.

With the stable will go the crack mare, May Hempstead, and a chestnut colt by Order—Surefoot. The latter is said to bear the strongest resemblance to Ornament of any colt ever foaled. May Hempstead belongs to Messrs. Headley & Norton, and the Order colt to Mr. H. P. Headley.

Mr. Leigh's stable will winter at Louisville, and, after taking part in the Memphis and Louisville meetings, probably go east.—The Thoroughbred Records.

J. V. Carter has stables at the corner of Ashland boulevard and Carroll avenue, Chicago. He has a most promising stable of two-year-olds, most of them the get of Pontico. Its members are:

- Bay colt, 2, by Pontico—Georgie D.
- Bay colt, 2, by Pontico—Mary W.
- Bay colt, 2, by Pontico—Surprise.
- Bay colt, 2, by Pontico—Blanche Sterling.
- Bay filly, 2, by Pontico—Stella, a half sister to Frank Ward.
- Bay filly, 2, by Pontico—Amanda Warren, half sister to Aristi and Walter H.
- Bay filly, 2, by Pontico—Mary Warren.
- Bay filly, 2, by Pontico—Mary H., a full sister to Guess Me.—The Record.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

It is said that J. R. Hand has shipped King Bermuda, Ella Peuzance and other horses to Tampa, Fla., to take part in the projected meeting. Owners who desire to race on the big tracks hereafter, should be careful about taking a hand in winter racing except over authorized tracks or they may suddenly discover that they have become outlaws. Racing at Tampa comes under the jurisdiction of the Jockey Club and if authorized by that body would be all right, but no notice of such authorization has been promulgated as yet. It is also said that racing is to be over a half-mile track which would come in conflict with a strict Turf Congress rule.

His Highness leads the sires of American winners for 1898, with a total of $73,092. His winning get, seven in number, won seventeen races, and is led by Jean Beraud with $65,397. Hanover is second in the list with $72,060 and twenty-one winners of fifty-three races Hamburg, $21,185 and Ben Holladay, $10,885, lead the Hanover brigade.

Colonel Dan Burns got tired of the disappointing running of the highly bred counterfeiter, Colonel Dan, and a few days ago presented him to James Conway. Colonel Dan is by Salvator—Fleurette, and as Fleurette is a full sister to Firenze and the dam of Fleur de Lis, great things were naturally expected from him, but in vain.

There is some talk of a strong effort being made in the near future looking to the reinstatement of little Earl Cochran, who has been down nearly two years for a ride the Ingleside judges did not like on Little Cripple, which they apparently expected to beat such a good horse as Ostler Joe.

Jockey McDonald, set down here last summer, has applied to Captain Rees for reinstatement, but has met with no more encouragement than is involved in the advice to the boy that only the stewards can now do anything for him.

It is rumored that the meetings over the big New York tracks this year may be continuous, instead of being interspersed with non-racing days. By this means more open dates for the Saratoga meeting may be provided.

Winner—B. g. by Kyo—Queenie. Start good. Won handsly. The Miller is a mudlark, the going suited him and he was lucky in getting off flying. Earl Islington bolted on the second turn. Throw out his race. Florence Fink is a jade. She had speed. The Minister was short. Master Lee ran a good race. He got into two mixups and had bad luck. Class him as improving. Fiero looks good and had speed be ween calls. Watch him. Maud Gnagi was short. She is a fair sort of a filly. St. Kristine doesn't like mud. The rest were bad. Scratched—Bid Mc, 107; Goal Runner, 109; Racivan, 109; Watossa, 109; Lavator, 112. The Miller, place, 3 to 1; show, 7 to 5. Master Lee, place, evens; show, 2 to 5. Maud Gnagi, show, 2 to 1.

Winner—Ch. c. by Inverness—Slow Dance. Start fair. Won driving. Free Lady should have won. She was best, but short. Tab her. She is good in mud. Highland Ball was lucky, saved ground on the turns, was well ridden and is good. Zamar II met interference on backstretch and home turn, was generally unlucky and closed strong. Etta H. likes the mud. She closed a big gap and was a good horse at the finish. The others cut no figure in the race. Scratched—Ygnacio, 100; Sly, 103; Du Bois, 108; Midnight, 109. Overweights—Highland Ball, 4 pounds; Zamar II., 2. Corrected weights—Ricardo, 111. Highland Ball, place, 3 to 1; show, 6 to 5. Zamar II., place, 2 to 5. Etta H., show, 7 to 10.

*Coupled in betting. Winner—Ch. f. by Patriot—Remembrance. Start straggling. Won in a hard drive. Dinah was fortunate throughout the race and was unlucky generally. Fannie Mills ran a good game race and is evidently a mudlark. Loch Katrine was off badly and made up a lot of ground and will bear watching, as also will Innovator who was inefficiently ridden. March Seven showed speed. Overweights—The Buffoon, 5 pounds. Dinah, place, 6 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Yellow Tail, place, 1 to 2. Fannie Mills, show, evens.

10195 FOURTH RACE—1 Mile. 3-year-olds and upward. The Baldwin Hotel Handicap. Value $1,500.

Winner—B. f. by Maxim—Napa. Start good. Won in a gallop. The track was to order for Napamax. She played with and outclassed her field. Is a wonder in this mud. Hohenzollern isn't a mud horse, but is in prime condition and ran a good race. Olinthus needs strong handling. His race was honest. Throw out Morner's race. Her ride was ridiculously bad. Bernardillo was badly ridden. He is an acrobat and dislikes mud. Scratched—Rainier, 85; Recreation, 100; Storm King, 102; Rosinante, 107; Paul Griggs, 112; Cromwell, 112; Bendoran, 119; Briar Sweet, 126. Overweights—Hohenzollern, 2 pounds. It is a record of the turf, billiards, pugilism, trotting, pacing and all the leading lines of sport up to January 1, 1899. All the matter within its pages have been compiled and edited by experts. It prints a list of all the turf and track records (by DAILY RACING FORM'S staff), billiard figures, past and present (by John Thatcher), the fights of 1898, with comments (by George Siler), harness records to date and of the past (by John Hervey, the statistician of The Horse Review) and three handicap tables, with directions for their application and expert comment. The Manual, in paper covers, sells at 30 cents and in soft morocco covers at 50 cents.

DAILY RACING FORM,

NOTE OF THE TURF.

The Ben Strome—Queen of Trumps filly that recently died in Mr. Whitney's stable at Westbury was reckoned about the best of the yearlings purchased by Mr. Paet. Unlike the majority of the get of Ben Strome, she was a neat, beautifully turned yearling, of no excessive size. Her death was felt scarcely less than that of her stablemate, Shillalah.

It has been decided to send Macy to Memphis for a well deserved rest. This sterling racehorse has had a long arduous campaign, and his running at New Orleans was such as to plainly show staleness. Fit and well, few horses now running are of greater speed and consistency than this good son of Hindoo.

The figures of taxation of racing in France for 1898—2 per cent of the total receipts for charity and 1 per cent. for national horse improvement—show a total of $1500,000 and indicate a total of about $43,000,000 in mutual betting for the year.

The Thoroughbred Record of Lexington, Ky., still continues to use, without credit, the table over winners here, there and everywhere as compiled and published by DAILY RACING FORM.

Winner—B. f. by Himyar—Astolat.
Start stragling. Won easily. Miss Marion was lucky in the send-off and easily held the field safe at all stages, seeming to be at home in the sloppy going. Lime Water ran an honest race and was favored by the mud. Horton was slow in getting on his stride. He made up a lot of ground and was running fast at the finish. Sam McKeever dislikes mud. The others were outclassed.

Hohenlohe dislikes mud. As weighted, Robert Bonner was outclassed. Mamie G. was not suited by the going and ran a bad race. A fast, dry track is her game.
